

Around our schools

HAVING A BALL AT INDOOR RECESS: Forest Brook Elementary School in Hauppauge has developed an Indoor Recess Room...and the timing couldn't have been better considering all the snow that's been falling! The recess room provides students with an opportunity to engage in physical activity during the winter months as well as on days when there is inclement weather. Several of the items were donated by the PTA and the community.