FOREST BROOK FIRST AND THIRD GRADERS ARE ON THE CASE!

On Friday, December 7th, Forest Brook first graders and third graders held an end-of-the-unit celebration. The third graders in Ms. Rivera's, Ms. Braglia's, Ms. Gandolfo's and Ms. Irvine's classes have been reading about mysteries. The first graders in Ms. Govits', Ms. Classey's and Ms. Clarkin's classes have worked on being "word detectives."

On entering the hallway, Ms. Classey and Ms. Clarkin were singing a song along with their class to the same tune as the "Ghostbusters" song. They sang, "What you gonna do? Look closely." Ms. Govits said, "The first graders are armed with their word detective badges, magnifying glasses to look at the words closely and their strategies. They were working on clues to solve words." In the mystery unit, the third-graders learned about clues, "red herrings," witnesses, suspects and detectives.

Ms. Govits said, "The students are seeing that what they have learned in first grade will come around again and be something they will carry on in third grade."

This was a wonderful celebration of learning and the students were very happy to work together!

FOREST BROOK ADVANCED CHORUS VISITS THE ARBORS OF HAUPPAUGE AND BRINGS LOTS OF HOLIDAY CHEER TO THEIR RESIDENTS!

Forest Brook Elementary School's advanced chorus brought lots of holiday cheer to the residents of The Arbors on Expressway Drive South in Hauppauge today. Led by music teacher Gina Koehler, the students transformed the room into a holiday wonderland!

The students arrived at The Arbors dressed in their holiday "funnest!" There were Santa hats, lots of fun headbands, Christmas light necklaces and holiday sweaters, shirts and dresses. Programs were distributed to the audience so they could sing along.

The first song was a Polar Express Medley, and that was followed by:

Hot, Hot (Say We Got It!) Hot Chocolate

Winter Fantasy

Jingle Bells

Let It Snow

Deck the Halls

Clean the Halls

Santa Claus is Coming to Town

Winter Wonderland

Hanakkah

Frosty the Snowman

Dreidl

A Holly Jolly Christmas

The Chipmunks Song

Hanakkah is Here

Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer

Jingle Bell Rock

The Twelve Days of Christmas

We Wish You a Happy Holiday

Jingle bells filled the room during some of the songs and the kids had fun with some hand movements. The residents sang along to the songs and you could tell they enjoyed this visit by our Chorus immensely!

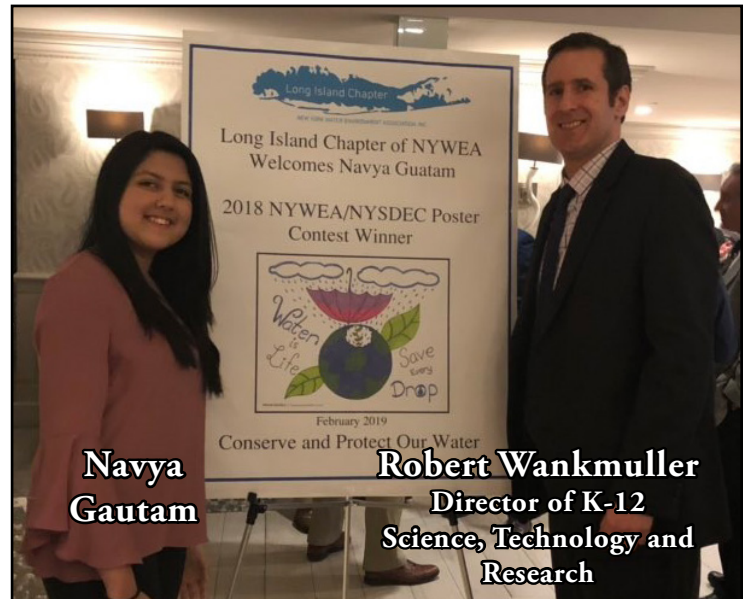

MIDDLE SCHOOL EIGHTH-GRADER WINS POSTER CONTEST

Mr. Wankmuller recently congratulated Middle School eighth-grader, Navya Gautam. Navya was recognized by the Long Island Chapter of the New York Water Environment Association for having the top poster out of 873 submissions. The theme of the contest was "Conserve and Protect our Water."

Congratulations Navya on this wonderful achievement!
