The purpose of scouting is to teach the “cubs”, the fundamentals of life and to have fun!!
 The Scout Law lists the basic characteristics one should have to become a productive, positive and successful person, not only in scouting, but in school and in life.
 The characteristics that cub scouts learn during their 6 years in cub scouting are the foundation we hope they will carry with them into the boy scouts and throughout the rest of their lives.

There are 6 dens:

Lions (grade K), Tigers (grade 1), Wolves (grade 2), Bears (grade 3), Webelos 1 (grade 4), Webelos 2 (grade 5)
 (6 Dens = “the Pack”)

We be loyal = Webelos

Dues is $115.00 per scout

Den meetings are approximately 1-2 meetings per month.
 There is one “Pack Night” per month at BW for group activities

Cub scouts is filled with fun activities, events, outings, trips, den meetings and pack nights!
