"I would like to thank our advisors for French, Madame Rigaud; German, Frau Cardi; and Spanish, Señora Maura-Rayó and Señora Tiedemann for their hard work and efforts. I would also like to thank all of our world language teachers for their dedication to our students and to the continued success of our program."

Dr. McCarthy also had a message for students: "Students, we are here to reward your efforts and achievements! Your induction is a symbol of your commitment to stimulate the study of world languages, to promote high standards of scholarship, to create enthusiasm for and an understanding of cultures, and to promote and preserve international friendship. I thank you for accepting the challenge to learn another language. Congratulations!!!"

MUSIC STUDENTS REPRESENT OUR DISTRICT VIRTUALLY AT LONG ISLAND STRING FESTIVAL

The following students were selected to represent Hauppauge at the annual LISFA (Long Island String Festival Association) Festival. This year's virtual festival consisted of a Pop Music workshop with violinist Christian Howes for the younger students and instrument specific masterclasses for the older students.

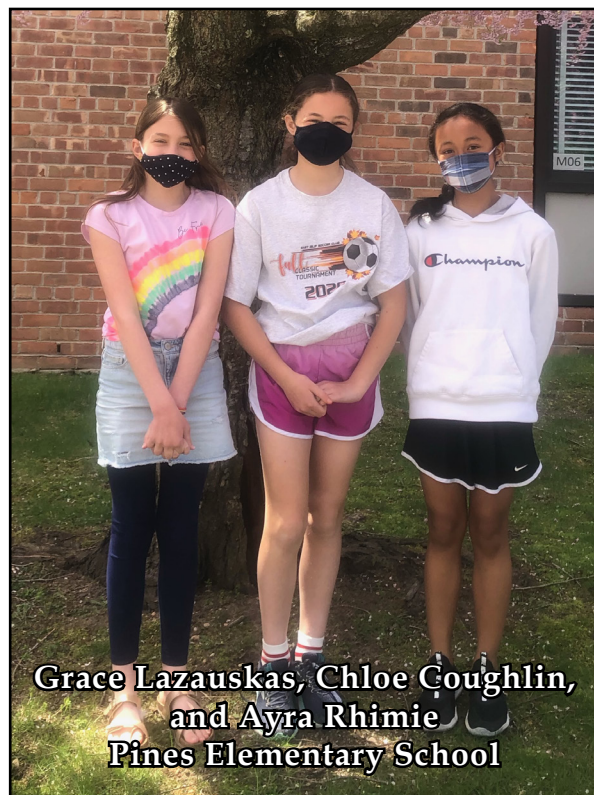

Forest Brook: Luke Sterace and Rheanna Samuel

Pines: Chloe Coughlin, Grace Lazauskas, Ayra Rhimie

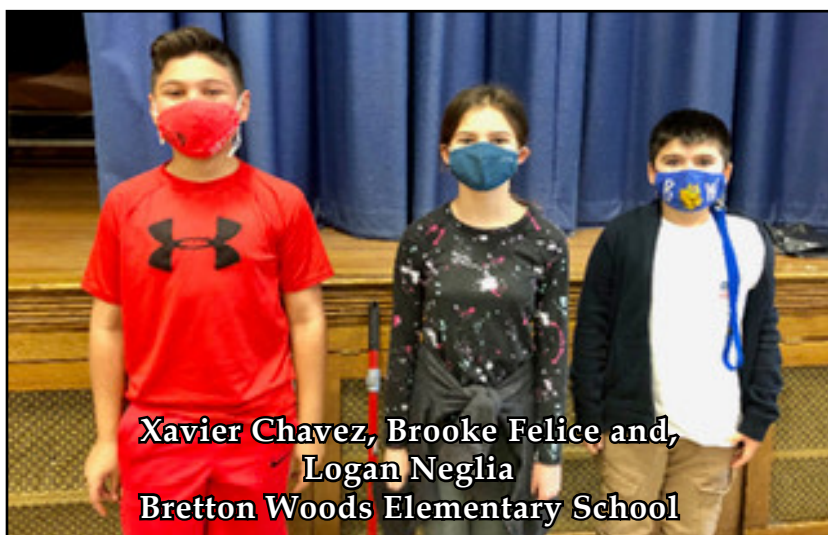

Bretton Woods: Xavier Chavez, Brooke Felice,

Pines student, Chloe Coughlin, said the following, "It was such an awesome experience! I loved learning the song Boogie Woogie."

Pines student, Ayra Rhimie, said "My favorite part was swaying to the music, and we learned "Coffin Dance!"

Pines student, Grace Lazauskas, said "I want to thank LISFA and Christian Howes for a fun workshop!"

Congratulations to our students on their selection to participate in this wonderful, and memorable, festival!

BRETTON WOODS STUDENTS WIN "I AM EM-POWERED" CHALLENGE

Bretton Woods students in Ms. Weeks and Ms. Dungate's fifth-grade class participated in the "I Am Em-Powered Student Challenge" funded by PSEG Long Island. Students completed a series of activities and researched energy efficiency, renewable energy, and environmental conservation. They had the task to create a Public Service Announcement to share their message about Energy Efficiency and Protecting the Environment.

Two of our students, Michael Gallarello and Jayleen Martorell were one of the winning partnerships. There were 207 submissions and they were one of 10 winning teams. They each received a $75.00 gift card from Amazon. Their class received $100.00 to use in the classroom, and another $100.00 for a class party.

Ms. Weeks said, "We are so proud of all of our students. This award is even more special for Michael and Jayleen because they are the students who collect all the recycling from each classroom every Friday. We started a recycling program this year in Bretton Woods and they take their job very seriously."

Congratulations to Michael and Jayleen, and to the entire class on a great job! Enjoy the party!!!

VARSITY GIRLS TENNIS TEAM FINISHES SEASON AS “LEAGUE II CHAMPIONS” AND UNDEFEATED 11-0

The Hauppauge girls tennis team finished the 2021 season as “League II Champions” and completed an undefeated season at 11-0. Leading the way for the Eagles were seniors and captains, Andriana Zapharis and Melody Cheng, both finishing at 11-0 in first and second singles respectively. Seniors Teresa Deasy and Elizabeth Holdorf led the team in first doubles. Junior Sophia Rosato added depth to the lineup finishing at 11-0 in her matches at third singles. Junior Heather McGullam stepping in at fourth singles finished her season at 8-2 and 1 tie. Doubles team of Riya and Roop Takhar completed a 9-2 season at second doubles while third doubles team of Samantha Fehrenbach and Riti Takhar also went 11-0 in league play.

“A total team effort enabled our girls to complete our first undefeated season in close to twenty years” according to Coach Messina. “I was so proud of the way our team competed and played the entire season. Throughout the season several times we needed different players to rise to the occasion and each time they did not disappoint. Several times, although losing their first set in various individual matches they dug down deep and won the next two sets to clinch the victory. When you have a one and two singles players that never lost a set it was up to the other members to add the last two points needed to win the matches.”

In the division tournament, although the girls played very competitive tennis, they lost some close matches. Andriana Zapharis led the team once again and played in the finals on Monday, April 19th. Andriana has been an outstanding player for Hauppauge finishing her career match record at 54-1, and has over 75 wins adding in tournaments as well. She has been All-County for four years as well as All-State last year. Andriana has selected to go to Marist college on a tennis scholarship.

Melody Cheng won her first match 6-0, 6-0 and lost in the second round to Bella Spilatros from Smithtown West. In addition to being an outstanding tennis player, Melody's Academic achievements, have earned her the title of Valedictorian for the Hauppauge Class of 2021.

Congratulations to the team on their outstanding performance!

NEWSDAY ARTICLE FEATURES FORMER HAUPPAUGE HIGH SCHOOL VALEDICTORIAN

Each year as part of Newsday's graduation coverage, the newspaper reaches out to some of Long Island's valedictorians from ten years earlier. Those students are covered in a special "Where Are They Now?" feature. This year, 2011 valedictorian, Lauren McGarry responded and she was included in this special article along with ten other high school valedictorians from across Long Island.

Lauren McGarry, Then and Now!

Lauren McGarry attended Georgetown University after high school and today is a Senior English Language Arts Curriculum Designer at "IXL Learning." She lives in North Carolina. Here is an excerpt from her Newsday article written by Rachel Weiss and Erin Serpico.

"Ten years, Lauren McGarry dreamed of becoming a lexicographer. Now she says, 'Although I'm not making dictionaries, my actual job aligns pretty well with the goals I set in high school.' McGarry's goals changed throughout college. During her undergraduate years, she imagined herself researching the syntax of Slavic languages for the rest of her life. She studied linguistics and Russian, and spent some time working in neurology and developmental psychology research labs.

She credits her undergraduate adviser, Ruth Kramer, with fostering her passion for language during her junior and senior years. McGarry speaks French and Russian, plus a little bit of German. 'I fell in love with syntax because of how she taught it, and she spent a lot of time helping me pursue that interest,' McGarry said. But while in graduate school at the University of California Santa Cruz, she had a realization. 'I was much more interested in teaching than in doing research,' she said. 'I've been much happier working in education technology.'

McGarry has been working at IXL Learning for three years. The K-12 learning website is used by millions of students worldwide. In her role, McGarry helps develop their ELA content. She credits her high school French and AP English teachers, Christine Rigaud and Ellen Ryan, with having an 'immense impact' on where she is today. 'They both helped me grow so much as a student and as a person,' McGarry said.

In her free time, McGarry volunteers at Carolina Tiger Rescue, a sanctuary for wild cats. She assists with their educational tours. She also just started taking cello lessons. 'Music gives me a sense of structure and helps clear my head - exactly what I needed to get through 2020' she said.

Looking back on her academic achievement, McGarry notes a valuable lesson she's learned in the past decade: 'There is not one singular, objective measure of intelligence or success,' she said."

We wish Lauren much success in her future endeavors!

WE ARE SO
Proud
OF YOU

PINES STUDENTS CELEBRATE AUTISM AWARENESS MONTH IN APRIL

For the month of April, Pines staff and students are wearing blue every Tuesday and donating $1 for Autism. Here are 2 pictures of Mrs. Inkeles and Mrs. Lovejoy wearing their matching shirts supporting Autism along with their students.

PINES STAFF MEMBER IS RECOGNIZED FOR HER DEDICATION TO PINES STUDENTS

By: Michele Giachetti - Pines 3rd Grade Teacher

Cathy Toth is a lunch monitor who has seen it all. She graduated from Hauppauge High School and has never left. Cathy worked as a substitute monitor for many years until she eventually got a permanent position. In 2012 she found her home at the Pines Elementary School where she is loved by her coworkers and her students.

Miss Cathy is a burst of energy when she comes to greet our students. Her firm, yet loving, approach is exactly the recipe these kids need during their free time. She adores the kids and it shows. From being a ref at lunchtime soccer to introducing new games to keep the kids engaged...Miss Cathy was even "caught" practicing math facts with her students to help them succeed on their weekly quiz. She not only cares that her students are having fun at recess and lunch, but she is vested in their academics as well...just one of the many reasons Miss Cathy was one of our "SRP (School Related Professionals)" spotlights this year.

We could not ask for a more caring and very thoughtful coworker. We are grateful to have yet another Hauppauge staff member that is changing life trajectories.

HIGH SCHOOL DRAMA STUDENTS BRING "THE ADDAMS FAMILY" TO LIFE

The Hauppauge High School Fine and Performing Arts Department proudly present "The Addams Family" on Friday, April 9th and Saturday, April 10th. The performances were not able to be performed in front of a live audience in the auditorium, however, the show was able to be watched anytime between 7:00 pm and midnight on either of those nights. Outside of those hours, the show was not viewable.

Dr. Laura Landor, Director of Fine and Performing Arts, said, "While the cast and crew wish that they could have performed live to a sold-out crowd, we are all proud of what they have been able to accomplish despite these unique circumstances. This show is certainly one for the history books! Nevertheless, it has all of the talent, joy, and creativity that you have come to expect from the HHS Musicals! I am confident that you will enjoy it as much as I do!"

Here are some photos of this spectacular performance!
